PRAISE

1

Select a behavior

2

Praise effusively

3

State the specific behavior

4

Add a gentle touch

ANTECEDENTS

Be clear and specific

Use gentle tone of voice

Offer choices

Say please

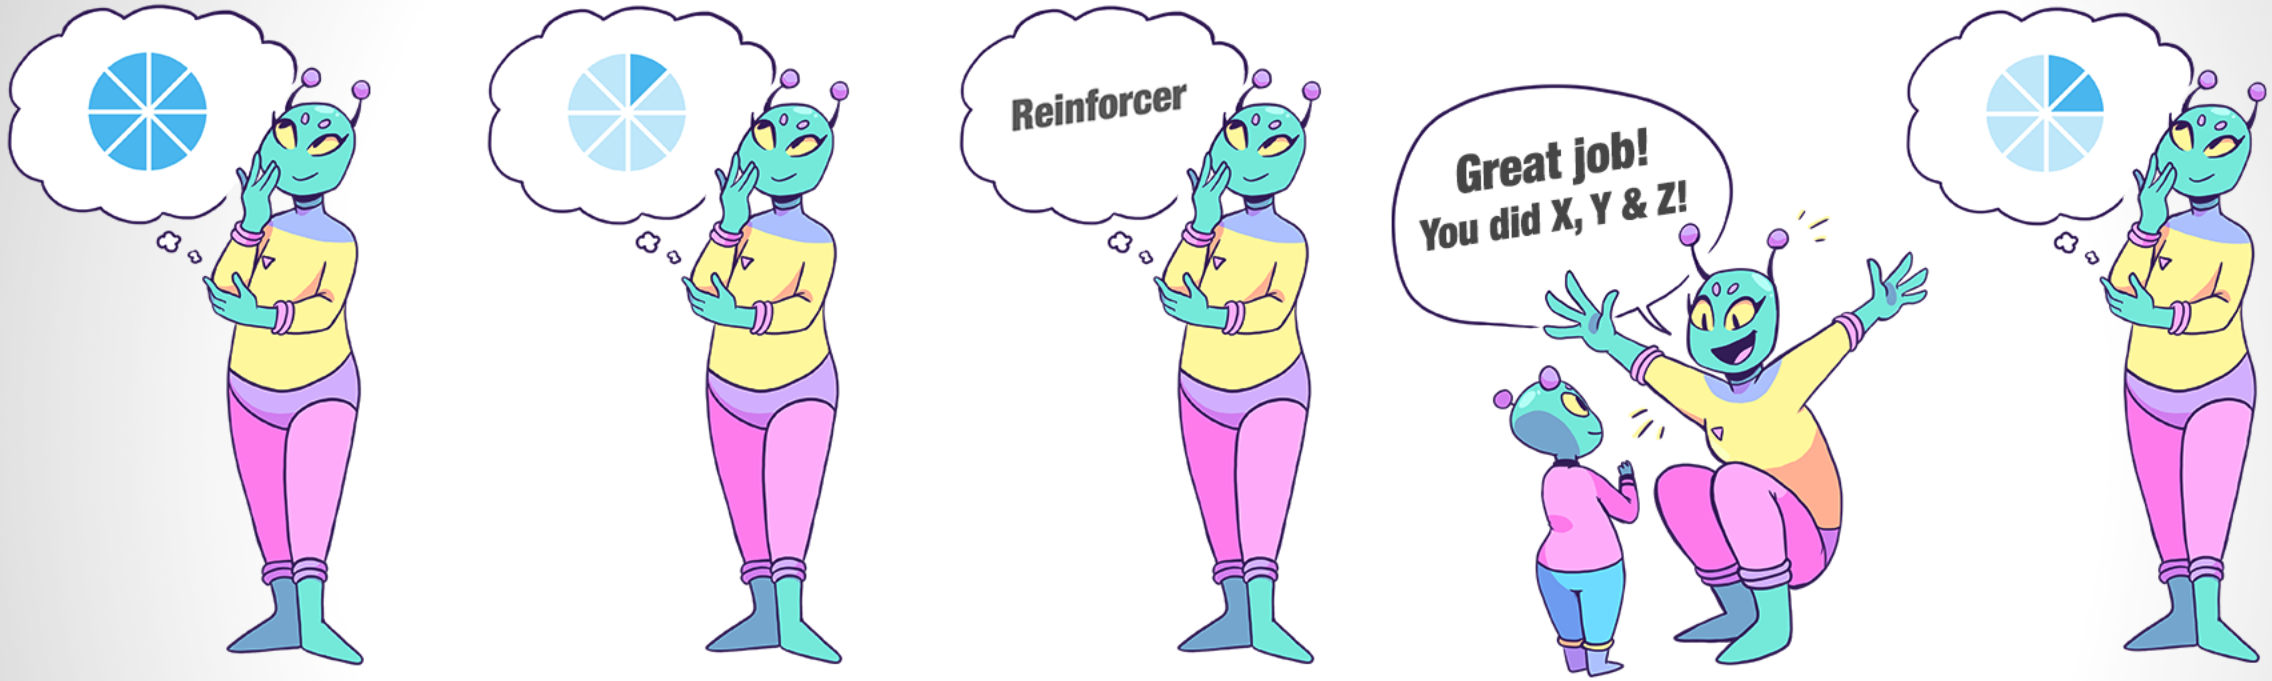

Offer assistance

Use a playful challenge

SHAPING

1

Select a behavior you are working toward

2

Select a seed of that behavior

3

Select a reinforcer (praise, points, etc.)

4

Reinforce occurrences of that small requirement

5

Increase the small requirement

SIMULATION

1

Select a behavior you want to change

2

Explain the simulation as a game

3

Play the game

4

Praise good behavior in the game

5

Use a playful challenge to encourage more practice

MODELING

1

Select a characteristic you want to develop

2

List concrete examples of that characteristic

3

Model those characteristics
(or point them out)

4

Praise any instance of that characteristic

POSITIVE OPPOSITE

1

Select a behavior you want to change

2

Identify the opposite of that behavior

3

Praise that positive opposite

POINT PROGRAMS

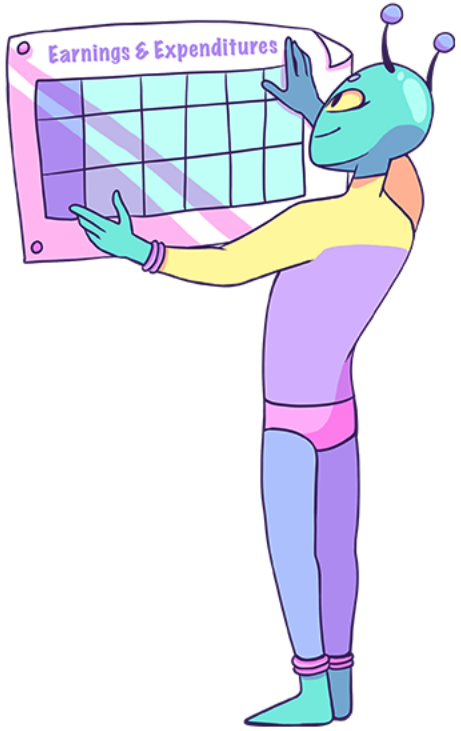

1

Select a behavior that will earn points

2

Select something to serve as points

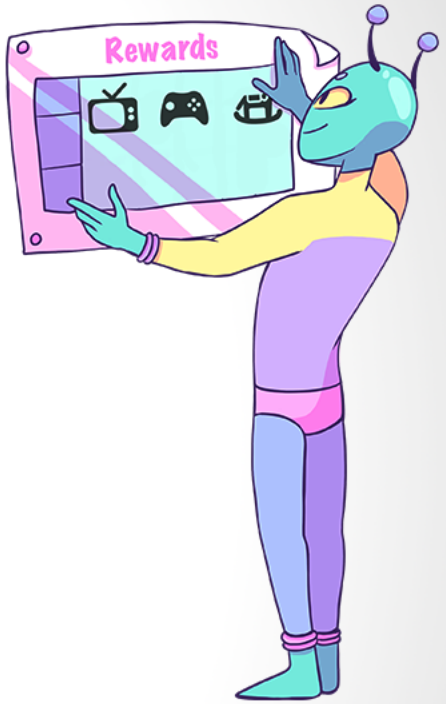

3

Track earnings and expenditures on a chart

4

List how many points are earned for behaviors

5

Develop a reward menu

ATTENDING

1

Select a behavior you want to increase

2

Select a type of attention
(praise or acknowledgement)

3

Provide attention immediately after the behavior

4

Attend to the behavior you want to increase often

PLANNED IGNORING

1

Select a behavior you want to decrease

2

Select the type of ignoring

3

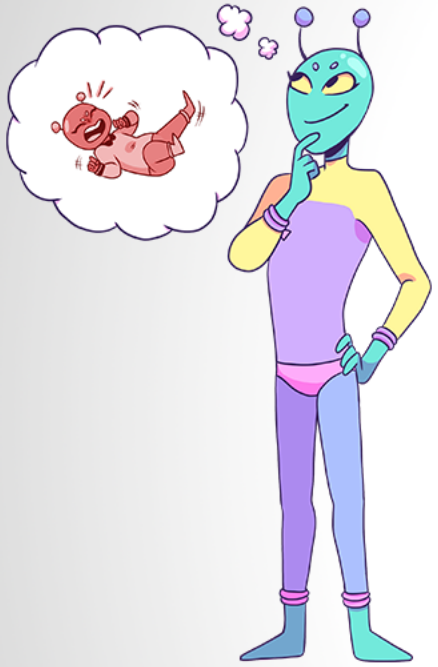

Ignore the bad behavior when it occurs

4

Praise the positive opposite

PUNISHMENT

1

Select a behavior you want to decrease

2

Identify the positive opposite of that behavior

3

Reinforce the positive opposite behavior

(praise, points, etc.)

4

Select a mild, brief punishment

(time out, loss of privilege, etc.)

5

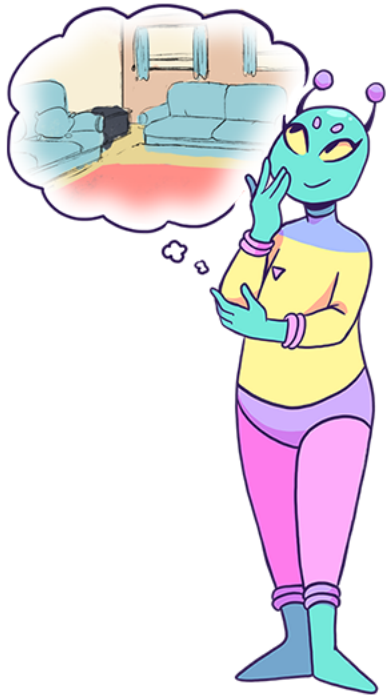

Ensure instances of praise outnumber instances of punishment

TIME OUT

1

Select a behavior that warrants a time out

2

Decide where time out will take place

3

Select a time out duration (1-5 minutes)

4

Select a back-up form of punishment

5

Explain how time out works when you and your child are calm

PRAISE FOR ADOLESCENTS

1

Praise quietly and calmly

2

Use exact and concrete terms

3

Give a nonverbal
gesture without touching

TROUBLESHOOTING TIPS

1. Provide prompts right before desired behavior
2. Note that distant prompts are often less effective
3. Demand smaller amounts of behavior at the beginning
4. Break down the behavior and praise partial completion
5. Remember that knowing does not equal doing
6. Keep in mind that doing the behavior once does not mean consistency

TROUBLESHOOTING TIPS

6 Praise the positive behavior every time you see it

7 Praise the desired behavior immediately, effusively, concretely, and affectionately

8 Make sure your child wants to spend earned points

9 Base rewards on your child's interest

10 Consistently praise and reward positive behavior

11 Create a daily routine for your reward program

JUMPSTARTING

1. Prompt your child to complete the first step of a task
2. Mention that your child can stop after completing the first step
3. Restate that your child has a choice to stop after the first step or keep going
4. Praise taking the first step whether or not your child continues the sequence

CONSEQUENCE SHARING

Provide a rewarding consequence to an individual for behavior and also give the same reward to others

Use when you want to develop behavior for only one child in a small group

GROUP PROGRAM

Provide a rewarding consequence to a group
only when all (or almost all) individuals have completed the behavior

Use when you want to develop the same behavior for more than one child

COMPROMISE

Be more flexible as your child enters adolescence and consider bending on behaviors that are likely to be temporary and are not dangerous

Use the extra space to jot down ideas:

1

2

3

4

NEGOTIATION

1. Listen to your child without interrupting
2. Be respectful of your child and withhold judgments
3. Focus on the present and refrain from mentioning any past mistakes
4. Stay on subject at hand
5. Provide a few alternatives without being authoritative or judgmental

PROBLEM SOLVING

1. Identify and state the problem
2. Prompt and encourage potential solutions
3. Identify a few ways to handle the problem
4. Go through each strategy and identify its consequences
5. Select the solution based on the best consequences
6. Role play the situation and the selected solution

BUILD A NURTURING FAMILY ENVIRONMENT

1. Promote communication by modeling how share openly and listen intently
2. Build family connections by seeing relatives on a regular basis
3. Establish a few regular family routines inside and outside the home
4. Promote social behavior by putting your child in more social situations and use praise
5. Be flexible with your child and compromise or negotiate when possible
6. Monitor your child and know what he or she is doing online and offline
7. Minimize stressors in the home by avoiding conflict as much as possible
8. Practice self-care by taking time for yourself to enjoy friends or special activities

HOME-BASED REINFORCEMENT PROGRAM

1. Specify the behavior you want to change in your child

2. Create a system that the teacher can use to measure your child's behavior
   Medium: index card, phone call, email, text, etc.
   Scoring: 0 = no improvement, 1 = slight improvement, 2 = total improvement

3. Devise a point program to reward points and give praise based on child's score
   See 'Point Programs' lesson for steps

BUILD COMPETENCIES

1. Ask your child what topics are of interest

2. Develop a point program for talking about area of interest
   See 'Point Programs' lesson for steps

3. Praise your child for sharing what he or she has learned

4. Keep the program pressure-free and casual

SEEKING PROFESSIONAL HELP: SIGNS

1. IMPAIRMENT - Is your child's aggressive behavior, high levels of activity, anxiety, or depression just getting in the way of routine activities?

2. DANGEROUS BEHAVIOR - Is your child's behavior of any danger to himself or to others?

3. UNUSUAL BEHAVIOR - Does your child engage in repetitive behaviors, see things that are not there, or hear voices?

4. CHANGE IN BEHAVIOR – Has your child's behavior changed drastically and suddenly?

5. DISTRESS - Is your child showing signs of stress that coincide with an event or stressor?

6. UNMANAGEABLE – Is your child difficult or impossible to control?

QUESTIONS TO ASK A TREATMENT PROVIDER

1. What is the treatment you provide for my child's problems?

2. How long have you been providing this treatment?

3. Has this particular treatment been studied, and does it have scientific evidence in its favor?

4. What are treatment options other than the one you provide?